Introduction

Oriental COCOSDA (O-COCOSDA) is the Oriental chapter of COCOSDA, an acronym of the International Committee for the Coordination and Standardisation of Speech Databases and Assessment Techniques. It was established in 1997 to exchange ideas, share information, and discuss regional matters on the creation, utilization, and dissemination of spoken language corpora of oriental languages and also on the assessment methods of speech recognition/synthesis systems as well as promote speech research on oriental languages. The organizers of O-COCOSDA 2024 invite all researchers, practitioners, industry partners, and sponsors to join the conference.
